Old Business

Neonicotinoid Pesticides Educational Materials

Deputy Director Morrison provided an overview of the different versions of the Pesticides and Pollinators. The Commission confirmed the direction to move forward with a two sided half sheet of paper. The Commission reviewed and edited the content of the educational materials. The Commission also discussed the next educational material topics which include landscaping/healthy yards, water usage, rain gardens and trees. The Commission will review the materials a final time at the September meeting.

New Business

Monarch Conservation Plan

Review of the Glenview Monarch Plan was tabled until the September 18 Environmental Quality Commission meeting.

Good of the Order

Mr. Morrison provided an update on House Resolution 763 – the Energy Innovation and Carbon Dividend Act. Deputy Public Works Director Morrison stated that no action had been taken on the Bill in the House of Representatives. Mr. Morrison asked the Commission if they wished to continue receiving updates and review the bill as action is taken in the House of Representatives. The Commission confirmed that is the direction on the topic.

Mr. Morrison also provided a draft of the sustainability article for the October Newsletter.
